1. HOMA's modern interior design objects are an exploration of organic, abstract, unexpected flowing lines and shapes. The stunning pieces are informed by art and driven by the philosophy that nothing artificial should be allowed to interfere with the energy of one's living environment. Visit www.homa.art and follow @homa.art on Instagram.

2. Handcrafted in England, LUCELLA Luxury Candles are 100% vegan, natural & paraben-free. Founder Lorissa Davies creates quality and elegance for your home, through indulgent scents and sophisticated design. Thoughtfully giftwrapped with a complimentary card for effortless present-giving. Shop online www.lucella.co.uk and follow @lucella_london on Instagram.

3. PÉTRA presents an exquisite assortment of stone furniture, crafting a narrative of sophistication and custom elegance within home interiors. Their portfolio, rich in vanities, sinks, bathtubs, and kitchen essentials, extends to bespoke smaller objects, offering a tailored touch to any space. The hallmark of Pétra's collection lies in its unparalleled customisation capabilities, with a dedicated team sourcing various stones, ensuring unmatched quality and flexibility. Visit www.petrastone.com and follow @petrastone on Instagram.

4. Mexican brand CASA BOHE proudly specialises in the creation of home textiles, designed and produced with the help of Mexican artisans. Organic strings are hand-dyed with natural pigments and spun into skeins, before being woven using the pedal loom technique; a tradition preserved from family to family. Like your personality, your home should be unique. Visit www.casabohe.com and follow @casa_bohe on Instagram.

5. Radiating traditional London interior aesthetic, this flower mosaic floor offers countless design possibilities. Made by THE MOSAIC FACTORY, the mosaics are customisable with other colours and boast a PTV36+ anti-slip rating, adding practicality to any design concept. Explore the collection and more at www.themosaicfactory.com and follow @tmf_mosaic on Instagram.

6. AZRRII - Jharokha is a window into the past, handmade by skilled artisans from Rajasthan. Photos cannot do justice to the intricate details carved into the piece. For unique pieces for your home, visit www.azrrii.com and follow @azrrii_UK on Instagram.

7. VALLONE's Apua: a premier marble collection for luxurious bathrooms. Crafted from 100% natural marble sourced near Italy's Apuan Alps, each piece is unique. With six marble types and a silky matte finish, it brings a fusion of nature and modernity to your home. Visit www.vallone.de and follow @vallonebath on Instagram.

8. NOD OBJECTS is a Canadian design studio based in London, focused on creating sculptural home objects. Ultra-modern with a playful twist, their pieces add a touch of fun to any space. Pictured is the newly released Cell Table. Visit nodobjects.com and follow @nodobjects on Instagram.

9. MANUELA CABRALES embodies excellence in crafting premium wearables and home-wear items, seamlessly blending artisanal techniques with compelling narratives to celebrate and honour cultural diversity. Their commitment extends beyond mere products, fostering connections through community engagement and promoting sustainability via eco-conscious practices. Visit www.manuelacabrales.com and follow @manuelacabrales on Instagram.

10. LANSERRING creates bespoke kitchens, furniture, and lifestyle products for discerning clients worldwide. Combining leading design and craftsmanship, they honour traditional artisanal techniques and natural materials, striving for excellence in every creation. Visit www.lanserring.com and follow @lanserring on Instagram.

11. LEAH CREAVEN's Land Girl collection is a personal exploration of land that draws on visual experience, childhood memories and Leah's ongoing contact with the land through work and leisure. Illustrating this concept with wool, a fibre that is grown all around, is an important element. Leah's work often references connections: connection to the land but also to herself, her Irish heritage, to family and memories. Visit www.leahereventextiles.com and follow @leahereaven_rugs on Instagram.

12. The Frame Chair by YIF DESIGN. The chair reflects a thoughtful approach to design where every contour and angle has been deliberately crafted, delivering a piece that encapsulates both sophistication and straightforwardness. The Frame Chair invites users to find joy in simplicity and embrace satisfaction in a space unburdened by excess. It encourages a shift towards a more conscious living, helping individuals to find tranquility in spaces defined by clarity and purpose, rather than material congestion. Learn more at yifstudio.com and follow @yif_studio on Instagram.

13. HERBEH WOOD specialises in crafting functional art, drawing inspiration from the Caribbean's elegance and utilising rescued natural materials, offering a range of items such as chairs, dining tables, and sculptures, blending functionality and art. Equilibrio stands as a testament to balance and beauty, pairing the enduring strength of salvaged mahogany with the graceful patterns of coral stone found in the heart of Puerto Rico. A clear glass top and subtle brass accents complete the piece, offsetting its organic aesthetic with a modern touch. Photo by Paola Quevedo. Visit www.herbehwood.com and follow @herbehwood on Instagram.

14. Shea, the creative force behind LEWA GLASS, combines traditional glass techniques with modern aesthetics to craft art, interior design, and architectural innovation. As a graduate in Glass & Glazing and CAD Design, she draws inspiration from her multicultural indigenous roots, infusing her work with diverse heritage and life experiences. Visit lewaglass.com.au and follow @lewaglass on Instagram.

15. L&CLAY CERAMICS is the brainchild of artist Lesley Boerio. Blending text with ceramics, Lesley crafts striking vessels that are not only visually captivating but also highly functional, adding a vibrant touch to any living space. Each piece is meticulously handmade, boasting a completely unique character. Visit landclayceramics.com and follow @landclayceramics on Instagram.

16. KATE METTEN is an award winning ceramic designer and painter based in Vancouver, Canada. Influenced by Modernist philosophies, Metten's work comes to life through intuitive construction and response to local materials. Visit katemetten.com and follow @kate_metten on Instagram.

17. JANAKI LARSEN's ceramics often respond to the seasons. Spring in Vancouver brings a flurry of cherry blossoms and this collection reflects the emergent yet fleeting Sakura Season. A delicate addition to her earthy tableware. Visit janakilarsen.com and follow @janakilarsen on Instagram.

18. The geometry of a prism and BIROT's design merge beautifully in 'Neo', a truly unique piece. With avant-garde style, Neo transforms any space, lighting triangular blocks into a kaleidoscope of light and metal. Spectators are captivated by the changing reflections and sparkles that mesmerise from every angle, unveiling its brilliance. Visit birot.lighting and follow @birot.lighting on Instagram.
