1. 'Anthos Vessels' handmade in Oxfordshire by Katie Coston of ILLYRIA POTTERY. Katie creates from her cottage studio, where she explores the translation of nature into clay. Follow Katie @illyriapottery on Instagram and visit her online shop at www.illyriapottery.co.uk

2. MIRO MACKIEWICZ's fascination with the human hand morphed into clay sculpting and so Morphand Studio was born. Visit www.morphandstudio.com and follow @morphand.studio on Instagram.

3. Weaving together natural alchemy with ethereal and feminine design, LUNAR ROSE POTTERY is all about imparting beauty into your daily grind. These handmade pieces are completely unique, adorned with carefully selected crystals and 22k gold accents, and infused with a little bit of magic. Visit lunarrosepottery.com and follow @lunarrosepottery on Instagram.

4. DANCING DUNES CERAMICS creates small-batch dishes and home goods that will enhance any space. Ranging from intricately hand painted mugs to uniquely shaped statement vases, this one-woman-studio based in the Rocky Mountains has just what you're looking for. Visit www.dancingdunesceramics.com and follow @dancingdunesceramics on Instagram.

5. CAROLINE MADDOX is an artist, yogi and writer who creates handmade functional and fine art ceramic objects. Based in Georgia, her seasonal designs reflect what's blooming around her in the moment. To learn more, follow @carolinemaddox on Instagram or visit www.carolinemaddox.com

6. EBB is a Brooklyn-based ceramic and design endeavour by Ellie Burel. Dedicated to crafting objects that are simple, useful, and beautiful—ebb seamlessly integrates into everyday life with a harmonious balance of form and function. Through thoughtful design, we can all enhance the spaces we already inhabit. Visit ellieburel.design and follow @eb_b_shop on Instagram.

7. MARK MITCHELL has a studio gallery in the beautiful Bay of Islands, New Zealand. He creates architecturally inspired, slab-built constructions. Renowned for his mastery of surfaces, eggshell crackle interiors, coinciding with painterly exteriors, suggesting landscape influences. Visit www.markmitchell-ceramic-artist.co.nz and follow @markmitchellceramics on Instagram.

8. CAROL PULTIZER's two Collections, 'Funky Greeks' and 'Ancients', begin with wheel-thrown classic shapes updated by uninhibited texture. A new line of vessels with very graphic, modern surface design will debut soon. She works out of New Orleans. Visit carolpultz.com and follow @cpcooks on Instagram.

9. AMY RUTHERFORD is a studio potter making wheel-thrown ceramic home and tableware. Combining altered forms with reactive glazes, she creates pieces with added interest. She believes in making timeless pieces which will serve their owner for years to come. Visit amyutherfordceramics.com and follow @amyutherfordceramics on Instagram.

10. At HEWITT CERAMICS, Elaine hand throws original white and glazed porcelain and stoneware vessels from her idyllic country barn in the heart of Surrey. Her homeware is designed to make pleasing forms part of everyday living. To find out more about her products and workshops, visit www.hewittceramics.co.uk or call 07570 809433. Photograph by Matthew Burch Photography.

11. ANDREW AVAKIAN's ceramic vessels bring rich architectural forms into client's homes. Working in his studio in Missoula, MT, Andrew crafts pieces individually with terracotta. Once constructed he approaches the surfaces like three dimensional paintings. The sculptural and playful nature of his vessels is at home on tables and mantles alike. See more at andrewavakian.com and follow @andrew_avakian on Instagram.

12. SAGE CERAMICS creates beautiful functional studio pottery using traditional wheel thrown and hand-building techniques in the heart of West Sussex. The tactile nature of the clays used is maximised with earth toned glazes and hand painted decoration to create unique homeware. All pieces are made to order. To find out more follow @sageceramics! on Instagram or visit www.sageceramics.co.uk

13. KATE METTEN is an award winning ceramic designer and painter based in Vancouver, Canada. Influenced by Modernist philosophies, Metten's work comes to life through intuitive construction and response to local materials. Visit katemetten.com and follow @kate_metten on Instagram.

14. Ariana Kier's studio, under the name OLLA CERAMICS, is a world of sediments collected from the far reaches of our planet. Her work—delicate porcelain moon jars, and towering hand-built forms, are interwoven with the history, science and ecological stories of each material used. There is much to learn here, far more than owning a beautiful piece of artwork—which they manage to be all the while. To read more about her work, see ollaceramics.com

15. ATHENE CERAMICS is a small West London based pottery, where functional tableware is hand thrown on the wheel by Abi. Specialising in black clay with unglazed exteriors, she marries stunning design with a unique tactile experience. See more at www.atheneceramics.com or follow @Athene_ceramicsbyabilawrence on Instagram.
